

Articles & Features

Aug. 19, 2010

Artery Explorer Provides View Into Atherosclerosis

MARTINSBURG, W.Va. — The Martinsburg Veterans Affairs Medical Center hosted the Artery Explorer here yesterday to provide Veterans and staff with a glimpse into atherosclerosis (the hardening of the arteries).

Through the mobile motion simulators, visitors were able to take a 3-D virtual tour to learn about atherosclerosis—a silent disease that is linked to nearly one in four deaths in the United States.

Photos: VA / Alexis Deffner

