

Preceptor Biography

Name: Mitchell A. Johnston, PharmD

Primary Practice site: Mental Health

School of pharmacy: West Virginia University, BSPHarm.; University of Maryland, Pharm.D.

Residency program: N/A

Usual daily activities: Jack of all trades: daily Rounding with Mental health acute care team, weekly/monthly medication education groups, outpt mental health/medication renewal clinic, Non-Formulary consults, RadaRx monitoring, remote site monitoring (for ADR data) & Adverse drug reaction tracking. MedWatch & VA ADERS. Outpt order (discharge medication) verification. Inventory management for HOPE center treatment room, and well as inspection of said Tx room. ADDs machine inventory & education.

What you like most about working for the Martinsburg VAMC: Libertie, Eqlitie, Fraternitie; I especially appreciate the freedom to explore the outer reaches of both my own abilities & the realm of professional possibilities open to me (appropriate to my education & training).

Other interests:

Pharmacy: getting into the impact that Psychology has on patient response to medication.

Personal: wandering in snowy forests in my slippers & robe, looking for Aslan